4. Policy

4.1. Course Fees

ECA Group will provide students with Fee information in relation to each course prior to the student's enrolment into a course. Students will receive and agree to a Fee Payment Schedule and instalments detailed in their Letter of Offer.

- 4.1.1. ECA Group reserves the right to amend course fees and to set other fees and charges, in accordance with the ESOS Act and the National Code.
- 4.1.2. A statement of Fees and Charges are published on the RTO website. The statement of Fees and Charges includes all costs associated with a course and will include all extra tuition, materials, re-assessment, administration or amenities fees applicable. Fees and charges will be subject to change and marketing materials will include the caveat: 'Tuition fees are subject to change and they are right at the time of publication'.
- 4.1.3. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that they have read and understood the information provided by ECA Group regarding fees, payments, refunds and guarantees prior to enrolling to a course.

4.2. Fee Payment Schedule

Students are invoiced according to the due date relevant to their enrolled study period. Course fees are payable by the advised due date for each semester.

- 4.2.1. 25% of course fees are to be paid upon acceptance of offer. A schedule of two instalments is offered for 6-month course and a schedule of four instalments is offered for one-year courses. Any variation on this must be requested and approved in writing.

4.3. Protection of Fees

- 4.3.1. Where the ECA Group requires a prospective or current learner to prepay fees in excess of $1500, the ECA Group will hold a learner fee protection scheme through the following arrangement:

- 4.3.1.1. ECA group holds current membership of a Tuition Assurance Scheme approved by its VET Regulator which, if the ECA Group is unable to provide services for which the learner has prepaid, must ensure:
- 4.3.1.2. the learner will be placed into an equivalent course such that the new location is geographically close to where the learner had been enrolled, and the learner receives the full services for which they have prepaid at no additional cost to the learner or
- 4.3.1.3. if an equivalent course cannot be found, the learner is paid a refund of any prepaid fees for services yet to be delivered above the threshold prepaid fee amount.

- 4.3.2. ECA Group RTOs are registered on the Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS) and will satisfy both the above requirements as well as the Tuition Protection Service (TPS) under the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000. The TPS requires that not more than 50 per cent of the fees for an international student be prepaid. This applies even if 50 per cent of the course fees would be less than the threshold prepaid fee amount of $1500.

4.4. Sanctions for Non-Payment of Fees

- 4.4.1. ECA Group reserves the right to apply sanctions to students with outstanding debts.

Penalties for non-payment of fees, charges or other monies owing for any services provided to a student, may include but are not limited to, the student not being entitled to:

- enrol/re-enrol;
- receive any results of assessment;
- graduate or receive a qualification from the College;
- receive a certificate/transcript of academic record.

4.4.2. Any amount owed as course related fees or charges by a person, including those persons whose enrolment is suspended or cancelled, is payable as debt and may be recovered by ECA Group.

1. Refunds

Prospective or current students who have accepted a place at ECA Group and who have been issued with a Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE) will be entitled to a refund of course fees, under the following conditions.

1.1. Refunds and non-issuance of CoE

If ECA Group does not issue a CoE the student is entitled to a full refund. To receive the refund, the student is required to notify ECA Group College.

1.2. Refunds for Student default

1.2.1. If a student's CoE is cancelled because they did not start the course, they will be reported for non-commencement within 5 days of no contact, the student will be entitled to a full refund minus the lesser of 5% of the amount of Course Fees received before the default date or $500 (whichever is less); and a Full Refund of the Overseas Student Health Cover Fee.

1.2.2. If a student's CoE is cancelled because they deferred the start date and subsequently did not start the course, they will be reported for non-commencement within 5 days of no contact, the student will be entitled to a full refund minus the lesser of 5% of the amount of Course Fees received before the default date or $500.; and a Full Refund of the Overseas Student Health Cover Fee.

1.3. Refunds for Provider default

1.3.1. If ECA Group or one of its associated providers cancels a course for which it has issued a CoE and does not offer an equivalent alternative course the affected student will be entitled to a Full Refund of Course Tuition Fees or CoE Security Deposit for the cancelled course and any subsequent package courses plus associated non-tuition fees; and a Full Refund of the Overseas Student Health Cover Fee.

1.3.2. The Tuition Protection Service (TPS) provides tuition protection to students in the case of provider default. TPS will assist you in finding an alternative course or to get a refund if a suitable alternative is not found.

1.4. Refunds and Visas

1.4.1. If a student has accepted an offer of enrolment at ECA Group and has been issued with a CoE but their student visa application is refused, and the student is yet to commence the course, the student will be entitled to a full refund of any prepaid course fees, minus an administration fee of either 5% of the amount of Course Fees (received before the visa application refusal date) or $500 (whichever is less); and a full refund of the OSHC fee. The student must notify ECA Group College apply for a Refund of Fees and send a verified copy of the original visa rejection letter from the Australia's Department of Home Affairs. ECA Group will process the application and refund the approved amount to the student following the process outlined in the Refund Procedures in this document.

1.4.2. If a student cannot start their course on time because the processing of their Visa Application is delayed by circumstances beyond the student's control, ECA Group will defer the student's enrolment and provide revised CoE(s) for the next commencement. In these circumstances, an Application for Deferral of Enrolment must be submitted with documentary evidence relating to the delay in visa processing. See the ECA Group Deferment Suspension Cancellation Policy and Procedure.

1.4.3. If a student commences study but their visa application is subsequently refused, they are entitled to a refund of unused tuition fees minus an administration fee of either 5% of the amount of Course Fees paid or $500 (whichever is less); and a partial refund of the OSHC fee.

1.5. Cancellation of visa due to non-compliance or breach

1.5.1. If a student's CoE is cancelled for a breach of their student visa conditions, conditions of enrolment and/or the National Code Standards (for example, unsatisfactory academic progress or non-payment of fees), the student is not entitled to a refund of Course Tuition Fees or CoE security deposit, nor the Materials Fee.

1.5.2. Any possible refund for the pre-paid Tuition and Non-tuition Fees for a package of courses will be determined in accordance with the principal course provider's international student refund policies and procedures. The student can apply for a part refund from their OSHC insurance fund. When the ECA Group is the provider of the principal course a refund will not be given when 6 months of the principal course has not been completed.

1.5.3. If a student's CoE is cancelled due to demonstrated compassionate and/or compelling circumstances, they are entitled to a full refund of Tuition Fees OR CoE Security Deposit for the cancelled course and any subsequent package courses plus associated nontuition fees, minus either 5% of the amount of Course Fees received before the course start date or $500 (whichever is less) if the withdrawal is before course start date; or a part refund of Unspent Tuition Fees for the current course at time of withdrawal, if the withdrawal is after the commencement date of their initial package course.

1.5.4. The student will receive a full refund of their Overseas Student Health Cover Fee if they withdraw before the commencement date of their first course in a package of courses; or no refund of their Overseas Student Health Cover Fee if they withdraw after the commencement date of their first course in the package.

1.6. Refunds and Student Withdrawal – Package Program

1.6.1. Students who satisfactorily complete the pre-requisite course of a packaged program and have received a CoE but choose not to enrol in the subsequent ECA Group course will be entitled to a refund of prepaid course fees minus either 5% of the amount of Course Fees received before the default date or $500 (whichever is less) if the withdrawal is before course start date.

1.7. Refunds and Student Withdrawal, Non-package Courses

1.7.1. If a student's CoE is cancelled as a result of their enrolment cancellation/withdrawal more than 8 weeks (56 days) before the commencement date of their non-package course, they are entitled to a full refund of their pre-paid course tuition fees or CoE Security Deposit plus Enrolment and Materials Fees, minus either 5% of the amount of Course Fees received before the default date or $500 (whichever is less); and a full refund of their Overseas Student Health Cover Fee.

1.7.2. If a student's CoE is cancelled as a result of their enrolment cancellation/withdrawal more than 4 weeks (28 days) but less than 8 weeks before the commencement date of their non-package course, they are entitled to a 75% refund of their pre-paid course tuition fees or CoE Security Deposit plus Enrolment and Materials Fees, minus either 5% of the amount of Course Fees received before the default date or $500 (whichever is less); and a full refund of their Overseas Student Health Cover Fee

1.7.3. If a student's CoE is cancelled as a result of their enrolment cancellation/withdrawal more than 2 weeks (14 days) but less than 4 weeks before the commencement date of their non-package course, they are entitled to a 50% refund of their prepaid course tuition fees or CoE Security Deposit plus Enrolment and Materials Fees, minus either 5% of the amount of Course Fees received before the default date or $500 (whichever is less); and a full refund of their Overseas Student Health Cover Fee.

1.8. Accommodation Refunds

- 1.8.1. If a student cancels their accommodation more than two weeks (14 days) before their arrival date they are entitled to a full refund of their pre-paid rent for both Homestay and 2Stay accommodation.
- 1.8.2. If a student cancels their accommodation more than two days (48 hours) but less than two weeks (14 days) before their arrival date they are entitled to: a partial refund of their pre-paid Homestay rent (minus their Placement Fee and 2 weeks rent); and a partial refund of their 2Stay rent (minus $350.00).
- 1.8.3. If a student cancels their accommodation less than 2 days (48 hours) before their arrival date they are not entitled to any refund.

1.9. Agents' Fee Refunds

Agents will forfeit all rights to Agent Commission payment for courses students fail to commence.

1.10. Refund Procedures

- 1.10.1. Students may apply for a refund by completing and submitting on-line an ECA Group Refund Form from the RTO website. Student must have an approved withdrawal before completing a Refund form.
- 1.10.2. Applications for withdrawal from the ECA Group courses and refunds will be processed within 20 working days and, if successful, progressed with recommendations to the Accounts Manager for determination of the refund application.
- 1.10.3. All Applications for a Refund will be determined by the Finance/Accounts Manager and will normally be processed within 20 working days of the Application being made. Where this is not possible the student will be informed.
- 1.10.4. All Approved Refunds will be paid within 20 working days of their being approved.
- 1.10.5. Applications may be made for the refund of fees and charges on the ground of exceptional circumstances which provide compassionate and compelling reasons for withdrawal from a course will be considered on a case by case basis.
- 1.10.6. Refunds will be made in Australian dollars and the College reserves the right to make refunds payable in the country of origin.
- 1.10.7. Where an international student requests that the refund is made payable to a relative or other person in Australia, this will only be granted if documentary evidence proves that the relative or other person paid the tuition fees.
